To balance the rotor place make sure that the test tubes are across from each other. An imaginary line from test tube to test tube should cross over the center rotor nut for proper balance.

When spinning fecals with a cover slip on the test tube, use the 4 place configuration. This will ensure cover slips have the proper force to stay on the test tube.